CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

OF THE

AMERICAN STATISTICAL ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. This Association shall be denominated the AMERICAN STATISTICAL ASSOCIATION.

ART. II. The objects of the Association shall be to collect, preserve, and diffuse statistical information in the different departments of human knowledge.

ART. III. The membership of the Association shall consist of regular members, fellows, corporate members and honorary members.

ART. IV. Regular members shall be persons interested in statistics, elected by vote of the Board of Directors, on nomination by one or more members.

ART. V. Fellows shall be statisticians of established reputation, elected by unanimous vote of the Committee on Fellows, provided for in Article VI, who shall canvass the field at least once a year and announce elections, if any, at the annual meeting of the Association. Fellows shall have all the privileges of regular members, including the right to hold office and to vote. The number of fellows shall not at any time exceed one hundred.

ART. VI. The Committee on Fellows shall consist of five fellows, and shall be appointed by the President. The first appointment under this article shall be made within three months after the adoption of this Constitution, and in the order determined by the President shall be for one, two, three, four, and five years, respectively. Subsequent appointments shall be made by the President at the annual meeting of the Association and for terms of five years each, but no member of the Committee may serve two terms in immediate succession.

ART. VII. Persons distinguished in the field of statistics or of public service may be elected to honorary membership by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. Honorary members shall be entitled to all the privileges of regular members of the Association, except that they may not hold office or vote.

ART. VIII. The officers of the Association shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Librarian, an Editor, and three Counsellors. These officers shall be elected every year, beginning with the first annual meeting succeeding the adoption of this Constitution, in the manner prescribed by Article IX and shall take office at the close of the annual meeting at which elected. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer and Counsellors shall form a Board of Directors for the government of the Association, three of whom shall constitute a quorum at any meeting regularly convened.

ART. IX. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, Editor, and Counsellors shall be elected in the following manner: A nominating committee of three members shall be appointed by the President, the personnel of which shall be announced in the Quarterly Publications of the Association at least three months before the annual meeting. It shall be the duty of the nominating committee to make nominations for officers to be elected at the annual meeting, and to notify the regular members and fellows by mail of its nominations at least thirty days before the annual meeting. Twelve or more regular members or fellows may make nominations for any office by submitting signed petitions to the nominating committee at any time after the appointment of the committee and up to the time of the annual meeting, but this shall not prevent the committee from making additional nominations for the same office.

If no nominations by petitions are submitted for any office, the nominee of the nominating committee may be elected at the annual meeting by viva voce vote. If there are additional nominations by petition for one or more offices, it shall be the duty of the nominating committee to announce such nominations, the election for such office or offices shall be by ballot, and the President shall appoint three judges of election who shall count the ballots, shall decide any question that may arise as to the validity of any ballot, and shall declare the results of the election. The candidate for President, or for Secretary, or for Treasurer, or for Librarian, or for Editor, receiving a plurality shall be declared elected, while the three candidates for Vice-President and the three candidates for Counsellors receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

ART. X. Annual and occasional meetings shall be held at such times and places as the Board of Directors may designate. Any vacancy in office resulting from death, resignation, or other cause shall be filled by election at the next meeting of the Association.

ART. XI. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by any member of the Association at the annual meeting, and if supported by at least one third of the members present and voting shall be submitted to the next annual meeting, where a two thirds vote of all members present and voting shall be required for adoption.

BY-LAWS.

1. At least once every two years the Secretary, acting in behalf of the Association, shall publish the Constitution and By-Laws and a list of members, and shall supply a copy to each member.

2. Each regular member shall pay annual dues of three dollars, or thirty dollars at some one time, each fellow shall pay annual dues of five dollars, or fifty dollars at some one time and each corporate member shall pay annual dues of $100.

3. The Board of Directors, as soon as practicable after their election, shall appoint two standing committees of three members each, namely, on Finance and on the Library; Five standing committees of five members each, namely on Federal Statistics, State Statistics, Municipal Statistics,

Business Statistics, and International Statistics. These committees shall serve for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

4. The Board of Directors, as soon as practicable after their election, shall appoint four associate editors, to serve with the Editor as a committee on publications, and to edit the publications of the Association. The associate editors shall serve for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

5. The Board of Directors as soon as practicable after their election, shall appoint two assistant secretaries, who shall serve for one year, or until their successors are appointed.

6. The Board of Directors, as soon as practicable after their election, shall appoint a Membership Committee, of five members, with power to add to their number.

7. Amendments to these By-Laws may be proposed at any annual meeting of the Association and if approved by a two thirds vote shall be declared adopted.
